

Name _____

OSAGE LODGES & VILLAGES - Review Questions

Read the Osage Lodges and Villages Fact Sheet & answer questions below:

1. What is the main name for Osage dwellings? _____
2. Lodges usually varied in length from ___ - ___ feet long. What was the longest length? _____
3. How tall (high) were the roofs (ceilings)? _____
4. _____ More than one family could live in one lodge. (T or F)
5. Describe the frame of the lodge: _____

6. Binding: What materials did they use to make the “cordage” to tie the frames?

7. What materials were used to cover the framework?

8. _____ This type of architectural structure is called a “bent frame” structure. (T or F)
9. Give an example of a “joined frame” structure: _____
10. _____ Common lodges each had one door open toward the sun on the east end. (T or F)
11. _____ The Osage slept in hammocks hung from the ridge pole. (T or F)
12. _____ The lodge floor was covered with woven mats. (T or F)
13. Describe three furnishings or objects you would find in an Osage lodge.

14. What type of dwelling did the Osage use while on buffalo hunts to the west? _____
15. The two main Osage village divisions were: _____
16. How did your division affect (1) where you lived within the village? _____

(2) who you married? _____
17. What is a “clan”? _____
18. Which structure was most like a church of today? _____
19. What was a “sweat lodge” used for? _____